The Art of Seeing Landscape—Making a Painting Work

After painting for 65 years, Ned may be considered a legend in his time with copious awards and honors as "Master Artist" with both the Oil Painters of America and the American Impressionist Society, a regular contributor to art publications, judging competitions, invitational shows and as a regular presenter at Scottsdale Art School. Mueller will speak to the whole process of putting a painting together: concept, small value composition studies, color studies and on to the finished painting.

JoAnn Peralta

Portraits - Seeing 2-Dimensional and Painting 3-D/ The Theory of Illusion in Art

JoAnn's work resonates with her blend of romanticism and realism and masterful use of light relating to cultural beauty found in her Spanish and Italian heritage, much like her artist husband, Morgan Weistling. She has exhibited and sold her art in the prestigious, Masters of the American West Show held at the Gene Autry Museum in L.A. She will cover painting basics and include drawing demo but the emphasis of the class will be intermediate to professional painting principles.
